

Dear Prospective Parents and Students:

Thank you for your interest in our school. I am delighted to share with you information about the Waldorf School of Baltimore. We are one of more than 900 Waldorf schools worldwide whose teaching is based on the educational philosophy of Rudolf Steiner. We have been serving families of the greater Baltimore community for 38 years.

In September of 2007 we began the implementation of the full Waldorf curriculum by adding our upper school and opening to our first ninth grade. We are currently accepting applications for 9th through 12th grades for fall 2010. In 2011 we will celebrate the graduation of our first 12th grade class. The education approach of Waldorf upper schools across the United States and around the world has been proving itself for over 80 years and is reflected by the success of its students.

The Waldorf School of Baltimore is fully licensed by the Maryland State Board of Education, fully accredited by the Association of Independent Maryland Schools (AIMS), and is a full member of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America (AWSNA).

Please explore and enjoy our website, designed to give you a wealth of information about school life, our programs, and the curriculum. However, the story of our school is best told through a visit to our beautiful hillside campus overlooking the Jones Falls valley and the City of Baltimore. School tours are conducted weekly. Please call 410-367-6808, ext. 203 or email bmochan@twsb.org to reserve a space. Please plan to attend some of the many events held throughout the school year. All are excellent opportunities to learn about Waldorf Education, see examples of student work, and speak with our faculty and administrators.

We understand the importance of finding the best upper school for your student. Come discover why the Waldorf School is what you always hoped a school would be. Contact the Admissions Office to make an appointment, or if you have any questions (410-367-6808, ext. 203). I look forward to meeting you soon!

With warmest regards,

Pat Whitehead
Admissions Director
